Groomer In Training Agreement

As a groomer in training you will be given the opportunity to advise us of any dates you will not be able to work as well as discuss your schedule in order to pick days for training that will work best for you. During the 1st 90 days you are on a probationary period. Calling in will be immediate grounds to terminate. The care and safety of the pets we care for are the #1 priority BUT without Dependability there would be NO way to ensure the animals are safe and properly cared for. You will be required to do the following throughout your training.

- Take before & after photos of all of your dogs (not to be used on social media at any point during training)
- Groom 100 dogs unassisted. Grooming is very much a hands on learning experience. I will not give you more than what I think you can handle judging by the potential I see.
- Complete homework when given. I have a file of how tos I have compiled over the last couple of years from various of my favorite groomers who post awesome tips and tricks. You never stop learning in this industry!
- You must purchase your own grooming equipment before your training is complete. Clippers, Blades, Shears, Thinners, Guard Combs, ETC. (MUST purchase Andis Or Wahl Clippers)
- MUST follow verbal instruction at all times. We encourage you to ALWAYS speak up when you feel uncomfortable or uneasy about a specific dog or task.
- you MUST be self motivated and want this position because you love animals and this is what you WANT to do! Not only is the job physically draining but there are days it takes its toll mentally and emotionally as well.
- MUST be able to lift atleast 50 lbs throughout your work day.
- If chosen to fill this position you will be required to sign a more detailed agreement. Within it you will have to agree to staying & grooming for Tail of 2 Groomers for a total of 2 years after your training is complete. If after training and you wish to not stay with the company you will be required to pay for your training in full ($3,000) within 30 days of completing training.

I certify that I have read the requirements & I understand what will be required of me in order to accept this position if chosen.
